Courses to be sailed will be designated by numbers. If an "X" is after your course number, then the next number is how many times to sail the course. A number has been assigned to each MYC Designated course. The designated course for each number is described in the Wednesday Night 2023 Racecourse Sheet.
- 10.2 Marks will be rounded directly in the order shown on the MYC's 2023 Racecourse Sheet. The MYC's Wednesday Night Marks Chart, shows the marks and their approximate location. This along with any GPS coordinates are only approximations and should be verified by all Skippers before racing. There will be no protest or redress regarding the mark location on the Chart, or any GPS coordinates obtained from the Race Committee.
- 10.3 Each turning mark shall be rounded on the side indicated on the 2022 Racecourse sheet. Marks listed in red shall be rounded to port and marks listed in green shall be rounded to starboard, except that the pin end of the start line when rounded as a mark will always be rounded to port.
- 10.4 Except when indicated as a turning mark, all yachts shall pass East of marks "S" and "L".
